A long time ago, in the land of Herro..., there was a legend. A man named Lord Balthier took possession of a staff called the Elden Ring, a powerful magic item from a long-dead god. Through the power of the ring, the Lord Balthier sealed his curse onto the helm of the god's chosen hero, and the hero was freed from his eternal slumber. The hero thus bore the name of Lord Balthier, and he took up the mantle of becoming a hero as a last resort to Runecraft Flat »". In the distant past, the inhabitants lived together in harmony, having built up their lives by the practical use of the wonderful resources of the region. The people lived in various forms of Rune-created villages, but at times there were conflicts between the collective. This came to a head, and the conflict reached a fever pitch.

The people of each village are scattered, and only one exists in Runecraft Flat and the distant lands. Each village has been monopolized by the warriors of.

The people in other villages fear and respect the warriors of their own village, and thus have been isolated. The villagers of these towns became warrior-like, and the villages went their separate ways.

The ones who remained lived together, grudging
