Please make sure you have a blu-ray, DVD, M2TS (DivX) or MP4 VIDEO_TS file to play. You'll need the real Blu-ray or DVD or the Direct2Drive app available in Google Play or Apple App Store for playback. Good news! All episodes are available in an add-on pack, so you can start playing right now! All episodes have been mastered at full HD resolution and running at the highest possible frame rate. We tried hard to make the game more immersive than ever! You will need the following tools and software to play, enjoy, and share with your friends! Windows version 10 or later required Additional Notes: DivX is known to corrupt playback in the Google Play version, please use the app store version. The video resolution is auto changed to full HD automatically, but if you want to use other resolution, you'll need to change the same setting on your display or use your TV's native resolution. If you have trouble playing the game, please check the "System Requirements" section on this page. Dear all guys, I also haven't received the game yet, and in that time ive sent them more than 10 emails with no reply, and 2 days ago they blocked me from the website. Can i give my money back to them, and how can i use it to get the game? Or is there a way to do that? thanks. Hi, Hi, Sorry for not responding to your queries as much as you might want for us. There was a problem in the system which prevented my reply in due course. I am now able to reply to you. My team is currently not taking any money back. You are still welcome to download the game and keep it on your devices till you are satisfied with the game. Once the game is fully delivered to you, you can follow the instructions given by the seller on the delivery page to return the game. Intracranial venous sinus thrombosis and thrombophilia. Intracranial venous sinus thrombosis (IVST) is an uncommon but often fatal condition usually occurring in middle-aged women. The pathophysiology of IVST remains obscure, and a definite diagnosis is frequently impossible or delayed. We describe a patient with this disorder,
