Muv-Luv Alternative features four additional playable characters in addition to Muv-Luv Unlimited's main characters. Rather than just be the dark, mysterious force that leads them into duels with protagonists of the game, their own personalities and pasts are explored through flashbacks and character development. Dual of Trinity and Despair and Return of Eve, Muv-Luv Alternative's first four characters are: Scaldar from Muv-Luv Unlimited Tsubasa Amazone from Muv-Luv Unlimited 2 Horace Mapon from Muv-Luv Unlimited 2 Gabriel Conroy from Muv-Luv Unlimited 3 Iori Tsutsui from Muv-Luv Alternative: Total Eclipse Like in Muv-Luv Unlimited, the games for each character focus on a different aspect of the character. Scaldar's games focus on his ability to adapt to situations and "live life without constraints," while Tsubasa's games focus on her ability to work with others. Horace's games focus on his ability to become a heroic adventurer and "face both good and evil," while Gabriel's focus on his ability to carry out the "magnificent deeds that will be remembered for centuries." The characters' adventures in Muv-Luv Alternative also depend on how the player performs in their respective games. Scaldar is a mysterious boy in Muv-Luv Unlimited. While the series explores Scaldar's past and roots for how he became a Lunarian, he has a cold personality, doesn't show emotion, and doesn't acknowledge any consequences of his actions. One of his main flaws is his lack of appreciation for the values of "live life without constraints." This makes him somewhat similar to the protagonist of Muv-Luv Unlimited 3, Dora Fruits, who has a similar personality and flaws to Scaldar. Tsubasa Amazone, on the other hand, is a girl from Muv-Luv Unlimited 2. Tsubasa's values are shaped around living peacefully and "not being alone," but she still remains strong-willed, optimistic, and friendly. Tsubasa tries to seek out a bright future for herself, and though she is still very cautious, she is an example of
