He knew he would have to say something, otherwise he'd just continue to stay silent and eat the food that was being served to him. But as he was about to raise his eyebrows and speak, he felt the warmness of a hand on his cheek. One minute later, none of the girls were in their seats and nobody had moved. The class was in a bit of confusion, wondering why the teacher had not yet started the class. He was seated at the back of the classroom, the top of his head almost touching the ceiling. He was wearing a smug smile on his face, no doubt thinking of how his classmates were sitting in their seats and he was comfortably seated at the back in his chair. The only student who he was looking at was again Sannan, with her long wavy blonde hair, wearing a typical Preppy Academic uniform of a white shirt and a white blazer, and blue jeans. And beside Sannan, the other girl was wearing a black leather jacket and a pink hoodie The girl's name was Cordelia, and she was in 11C, Sami's class, along with his friend Lute. He was still thinking about what she had said earlier about having a sister named Cassandra, which the teacher had mentioned as well. It looked like Cordelia was the type of girl who was going to freak out Lute and pretty much destroy any attempts that Sami made to contact her.
